Condolence Statement for U Tin Oo

It is with deep sorrow and heavy hearts that the Australia Myanmar Institute for Democracy, Human Rights and Peace extends its heartfelt condolences on the passing of U Tin Oo. A towering figure in Myanmar's political landscape, U Tin Oo leaves behind a legacy of unwavering dedication to democracy, human rights, and peace.

From his early days as a military officer to his pivotal role as a co-founder of the National League for Democracy (NLD), U Tin Oo demonstrated remarkable courage and leadership. His military career, marked by bravery and strategic acumen, transitioned seamlessly into a lifelong commitment to serving the people of Myanmar.

Despite facing persecution, imprisonment, and hardship, U Tin Oo never wavered in his pursuit of a better future for his country. His sacrifices and unwavering resolve inspired countless individuals both within Myanmar and around the world.

We remember U Tin Oo not only for his contributions to Myanmar's struggle for democracy but also for his resilience in the face of adversity. His indomitable spirit and steadfast commitment to justice will continue to inspire generations to come.

In this time of mourning, we offer our deepest sympathies to U Tin Oo's family, friends, and the people of Myanmar. May his legacy serve as a beacon of hope and courage in the ongoing pursuit of democracy and human rights in Myanmar.
